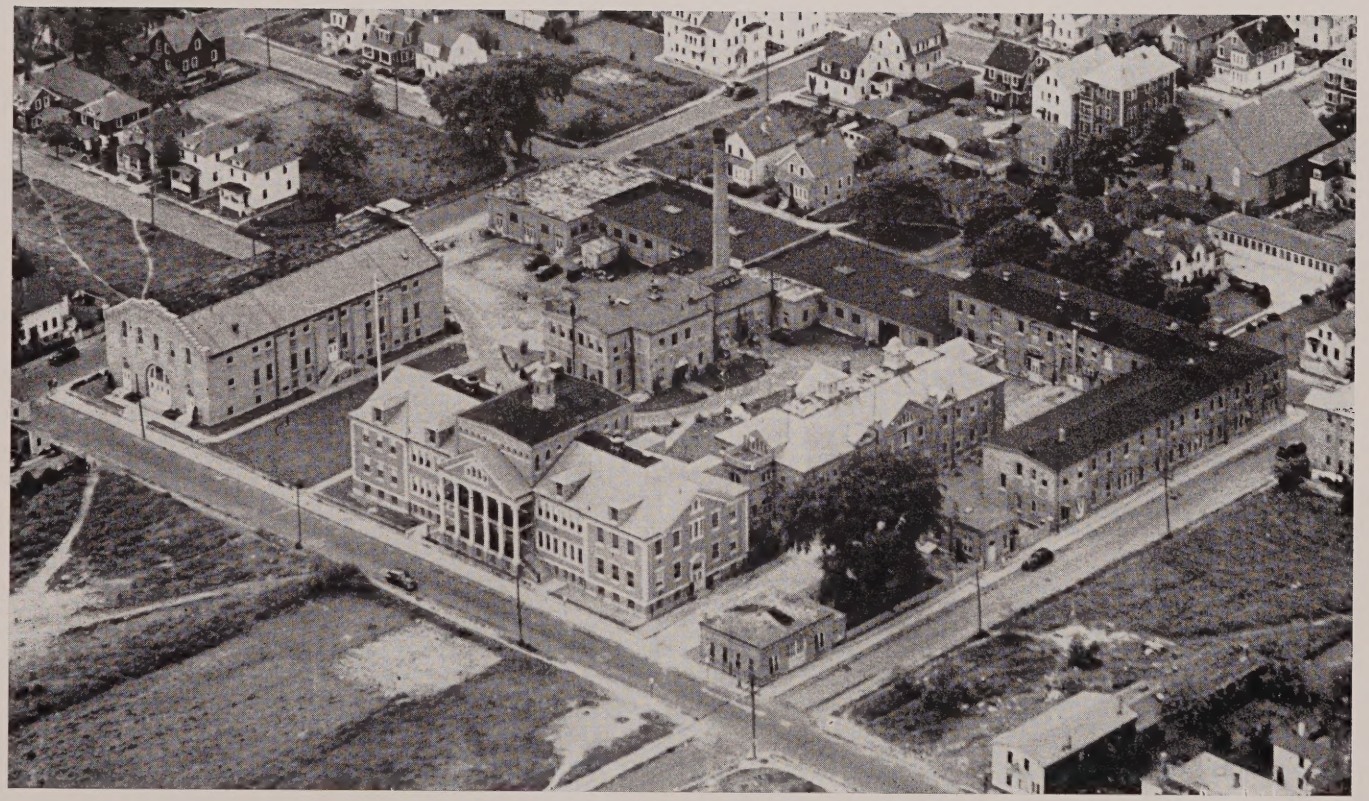
Foreword

We, the Staff of the 1948 Mariner, have done our best to present to you, in the following pages, the means whereby you may re-capture happy memories of the many friends and the good times you have enjoyed during your four years at New Bedford Vocational High School.



Dedication

The Mariner of 1948 is Respectfully Dedicated to

MISS AGNES EARLY

and

MR. HERBERT LEONARD

These educators have labored faithfully to make our years at Vocational profitable and happy. To each we tender our sincere gratitude and the wish that the future will bring to them continued success and renown.

CLASS HISTORY

Class History

Here it is June 1948 — the Year of our Graduation! It doesn't seem possible that four years could go by so quickly!

It was September, 1944, that we entered Vocational High as Freshmen. Shy and awkward were most of us. Mr. Mackintosh greeted us kindly at our first assembly. He confronted us with the idea that the amount of effort put into our work would determine the amount of good received by us.

Our first day in school was one we shall never forget! New faces, new friends and, above all, a new school! Would we ever get used to everything, we wondered? Would we be successful in our courses? All these worries occupied our troubled minds the first few weeks of school — that is until the Freshman Dance which was sponsored by the Junior Class. It was a wonderful affair!

Before we realized it, June was here and a well-earned summer vacation awaited us.

September rolled around again and we entered our Sophomore Year with happy hearts. We wondered how we had ever felt strange and timid at Vocational High School. School went on much the same as in our Freshman Year, except that our studies were more difficult. Athletics and clubs were enjoyed by all and they brought us many new friends.

Returning as Juniors in 1946 from a pleasant vacation, we settled down to school work with determination.

As our class advisors, we chose Miss Helen Hodziewich and Mr. Kenneth H. Pearson.

Our class officers were President, Anthony Esperanca, Vice-President, Alice Laferriere, Secretary, Lorraine Tetreault, Treasurer, Russell Edge.

We held our first dance of the year in honor of the incoming Freshmen. They seemed to enjoy it.

Soon followed the V. A. A. Dance which was a great success.

Christmas was just around the corner and we Juniors held a party in the girls' gymnasium with all the Christmas trimmings.

May soon arrived after that and we were busy bees preparing for our Junior Prom. Oh! The Prom! We shall never forget it! Billy Williams and his sweet and smooth-playing Orchestra serenaded us. Sheila Harrington was crowned Queen of the Prom.

Our Junior Year ended with a wonderful outing at Pine Hill Pavilion.

Seniors at Last! Our advisors were Mrs. Estelle Oldfield and Mr. Sterling Wilson. Our class officers were President, Earl Rogers, Vice-President, Rosemary Meehan, Secretary, Elinor Demers, later replaced by Dorothy Barcomb, Treasurer, Andrew Girard. Our class sponsored a Harvest Dance which was enjoyed by all attending.

For the first time in our years at Vocational High, a giant Christmas Bazaar for the benefit of the V-Teens was held. It was a great financial success.

We are looking forward to our Graduation and our Senior Prom — the highlights of our four years at Vocational.

Regretfully we must say "farewell" to our dear Vocational High, — our teachers, our classmates and other friends.

Class Will

We, the members of the Senior Class of Nineteen Hundred and Forty-Eight of the New Bedford Vocational High School of the City of New Bedford, the County of Bristol, and the Commonwealth of Massachusetts being of sound mind and memory, do hereby solemnly make our last will and testament.

We collectively and individually bequeath the following:

To Mr. Mackintosh, we leave our sincere thanks for his wise counsel and unfailing help during our four years at Vocational.

To the faculty, we leave our deep appreciation of their efforts to give us a clear outlook on life.

To the Juniors we leave the prospect of enjoying their senior year as much as we did.

To the Sophomores, we leave the privilege of becoming upper-classmen.

To the Freshmen, we leave the privilege of obeying the laws of the school conscientiously.

Tony Esperanca leaves the long ride from Dartmouth to Henry Gemme.

Fred Roscow leaves Mr. Pittendreigh without a source of income.

Anna Gilmette leaves her milk stand to a lucky senior girl.

Larry Sylvia leaves his water-bucket to George Valley.

Len Rocha leaves his parking space to Don Hinkly.

Alice Laferriere leaves "Pop" Dufresne to his many admirers.

Edwin Makara leaves while the going is good.

Gwendolyn Gumbs leaves her job as Traffic-Chief to Carol Cunningham.

Joseph DeCosta leaves a vacant chair in the Girls' Cafeteria.

Betty Seifert leaves making sure Art goes with her.

James Hollis leaves to become an admiral.

Florence Kowalski leaves Miss Forrest minus a giggler.

"Marty" McCoy leaves the Seniors' shins black and blue.

Dorothy Barcomb leaves the teachers without a steady helper.

"Bill" Bancroft leaves nothing — he's taking it all with him.

Ann Hodziewich leaves her position as head-cheerleader to Theresa Murray.

Robert Cryer leaves the fenders to straighten themselves out.

Rosemary Meehan leaves still looking for an Irishman.

Norman Desmarais leaves Mr. Barrett adjusting valve tappets.

Roland LePire leaves after using everyone's soap and towel for four years.

Millicent Reynolds leaves without a care in the world.

Leonard Francis leaves Mr. Holt without a short putt.

Sheila Harrington leaves Mrs. Oldfield still unable to find her.

Antone Kolz leaves Mr. Horton without a shop foreman.

Eleanor Perry leaves George reluctantly.

Edward Souza leaves some bolt without a nut

Donald Dlouhy leaves the cabinet boys in peace.

Edmund Quadros leaves the soap-box to Witlow.

Andrew Girard leaves with his four-inch pencil.

Len Benevides leaves his locker mirror to Bill Isherwood so he can comb his curls before going home to his wife.

Dorothy Gryss leaves Gene Barriteau without a "sweet and lovely".

Donald Audette leaves the Orchid Diner without a steady customer.

John Catterall leaves turning the office over to its proper ownership.

Doris Sherman leaves with a diamond on her left hand.

The Senior Class leave wishing they were freshmen again.

In witness thereof, we set our hand, seal and signature on this twentieth day of June in the year of our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Forty-Eight.

Signed, sealed, and declared by the class of 1948 of the New Bedford Vocational High School to be their last will and testament.

Class Prophecy

Good Morning, Ladies and Gentlemen. This is your radio reporter, Tom Johansen, down at the New Bedford railroad station, awaiting the arrival of the alumni from the New Bedford Vocational High School, class of '48. They are about to board the train enroute to California where they will see the Nose Bowl Game.

Among these graduates are some very prominent citizens, who just ten years ago graduated from the illustrious Vocational High, when New Bedford was but a small, one-horse town, today it's much larger and is not a two-horse town.

I see coming onto the platform some of New Bedford's leading citizens and prominent business men. Heading the procession are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Grimley. Mrs. Grimley is the former Betty Seifert. Mr. Grimley is founder and president of the Grimley Hats, Inc. whose goofy creations would make Hedda Hopper blush.

Directly behind the Grimleys are Dr. and Mrs. Steve Bastoni. Mrs. Bastoni was formerly Sheila Harrington and she is now known as "Swisha Bastoni", star of the Romper Girls Basketball Team.

Coming thru' the door is Jimmie Pallatroni, compounder of that rare cure-all "Pal-a-Tronies" for the stomach. With the wealthy Mr. Pallatroni are Ruggles Porter and Robert Cryer, assistant football coaches at Vassar College for women. They seem contented at their work.

Over at the far end of the station I see three men who have distinguished themselves in politics for kissing babies. They are Fernando Roderiques, George Sullivan and William Sylvia.

Mr. Claude Henderson is the designer of the new steam-airplane, which is sweep- the country. As far as I know, that's all it's good for. It can't fly. With Henderson are Captain Herbert Olivierre, of the "None-Better" Coal Barge and Joe Pryor, the eminent pigeon trainer.

The train isn't due to leave for another hour yet, so leave us look over the mob.

Over in the corner, leaning on his cue, is the billiard-shark—John Bielski. Bielski has just completed his book on "How to make a three-cushioned billiard shot without chalking your cue". This book can be bought at any second-hand bookstore — 3 for ten cents. Also thrown in for free are a cue and a rack of billiard balls.

And now a word from our sponsor, "The Lawrence Sylvia Water Bucket Co."

The Sylvia water buckets are made of the finest material and can withstand any and all punishment issued upon them but take one precaution. Do not put water in them — they leak!

Now let us look around and see who else we know. I see standing over at the pop-corn machine in his ten-gallon hat, movie star Warren "Two-Gun" Tripp of "Western Melodramas".

Holding up the wall near the gum machine is the famous maker of false teeth for reindeers — Donald Dloughy and tieing Dloughy's shoe-laces is his valet, Frederick Roscow.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred "Freddie" Beauregard and his wife, the former Mary Forrest, are casually munching a cake of ice. Ward Allen is giving them the cold shoulder because Mary turned him down for "Freddie". But wait! A little red-head has appeared and Allen looks interested.

Standing in the corner practicing her singing is Alice LaFerriere — famous star of Tin-Pan Alley — South End, New Bedford! Standing next to Alice is Lenny Rocha, the big-game hunter. You can read about his exploits in a book he has just finished entitled "Hunting Tibbars in the Wilds of Acushnet". Tibbars are rabbitts spelled backwards!

Talking with Lenny is a group of distinguished men namely Abel Moinheiro, William Lundrigan and Roland LaPire. These gentlemen own the famous club "El Bandito".

Over at the candy counter are Lorraine Tetreault and Claire Poirier eating a licorice stick, one at each end trying to outdo the other. Refereeing this battle of the licorice stick is Donald Negus.

Hanging from the roof by his toes inspecting the eaves is Edwin Makara. Looking up at Makara are Frank LaPolla and Walter Gonet laughing their heads off. They don't know that Russell Tripp is about to give them a hot foot.

The sports world is also well represented by the mighty Lenny Benevides, slugging infielder of "The Mudville Nine". Soccer is an up and coming sport in New Bedford. It is well represented by such stars as Manuel Rego, Stanley Skozolek, Bronislaw Patla, Arthur Rose, John Williamson and Edmund "Squawkie" Quadros. All these men play for the "Kick-em-in-face" Athletic Club.

Harmonizing in the center of the station is the famous quartet, Earl Rogers, Joseph DeCosta, Edward Cormier and Frank Lynch. These men are better known as "Awfully Flat Four".

Now I see William McGreevy, lugging a bag of potatoes onto the station platform. Mr. McGreevy is planning to open a french fried potatoes concession at the Nose Bowl.

Entering the depot are Herve and Henry Arsenault, Gene Oliver, and Gilbert Rauch, — founders of the Fancy Wrecking Co. Directly behind these three are Donald Audette and Dorothy Gryss, famous dance team and with them is their manager, Joe forty-per-cent" Bowler.

Following close behind are Andre Le Beau, the well-known whistler, and David Oliver's equally well-known band.

Well, here comes the train at last! All the celebrities are boarding the train with much excitement. And will you look who's engineer! Antone Kalz with his fireman Herbert Turner.

It's time to leave you now, for the train is pulling out. I'll be with you again at St. Louis, Missouri. There the rest of the alumni will board the train for the trip westward.

St. Louis — 1 day, 6 hours, 42 minutes 4 seconds later.

We stop to take on the rest of the Class of '48. They are the ones who moved westward to seek their fame and fortune.

As the train pulls in, I see standing on the platform that Olympic snow-ball throwing champion, Joe Linkiewicz. He is standing with two hot rod makers, Howard Mallowes and Edward Souza and are joined by the "Mad Ukrainian", Fred Nazarchyk of radio fame.

Three of St. Louis' richest men are used-car dealers. They are Stanley "Honest" Boehler, Normand "Reliable" Desmarais, and James "Old Faithful" Gatenby.

"Tony" Esperanca, Millionaire owner of a large goat-milk firm, is talking with Frank Lima, western representative for Ted Garecki's Baking Co. Ted Milos, Guy Oliviera, Alfred Oulette and Herbert Rogers are all talking about how good they are on their jobs. They are garbage collectors.

Practicing their game in the lot next to the railroad station is a group of professional marble-shooters: namely, Anthony Modesto, Armand Talbot, Alfred "General" Metivier, and Robert Gardner. Harry Cornell and Raymond Camara are hired by the boys to massage their hands and keep them in condition.

We leave the train for some refreshments in the station and we go to a hot-dog stand where Seraphine Duarte is co-partner with David Buckley. Washing dishes behind the counter is Earl Davis, highest paid dishwasher in the city.

"Captain" Steve Afthemeades and his first-mate, Jimmy Crowell of the boat "Conchita Banana" are having their fortunes told by John Catterall, the world-renowned Indian fakir, in his booth at the station.

Len Francis, Carleton Lowe and Anthony Mello, talent scouts for "The Ice-Capades" are strolling about looking for possible prospects.

Stanley Milos, famous salesman, is searching for a customer to buy the Brooklyn Bridge, which he bought from Bill Bancroft. Anna Gilmette, Doris Sherman, Florence Kowalski, Rosalie Roshur are all married ladies and have brought their husbands along.

Dorothy Barcomb has married a doctor. She and her husband are giving first-aid to Gwendolyn Gumbs and Millicent Reynolds, I see. The girls have been so excited on the trip they haven't been able to eat and are about to faint from hunger. Millicent is called "The Voice". She reads children's stories in the chain of nursery schools owned by Gwendolyn and Eleanor Perry.

The McCoy brothers, James and Martin, are the owners of St. Louis' hotel, "The McCoy Hacienda". Russell Edge and Edwin Calles, Missisippi steam-boat operators have just bought from Walt Ferreira a used-car, costing a considerable sum of moola. They want to show that they are making money hand over fist.

Next I see Ann Hodziewich, world-famous psychiatrist, and Rosemary Meehan, who has just returned from an opera tour in Europe. Rosemary's secretary is Cassandra DeRosa and her Manager is Eleanor Germain.

I also see Virginia Clay and Leonard Palmer who have been engaged for the last ten years. They have been doing Shakespearian acting and are famous for their portrayal of "Romeo and Juliet".

The conductor is signaling "all-board" and we must leave now for California where we shall witness the great western classic, the Tournament of Noses.

It has been fun bringing this broadcast to you and introducing to you the celebrities who have joined us along the way.

No, Claire Poirier, you can't say, "Hello, 'Ma' Mahoney at Vocational High!"

This is your M.Y.O.B. station signing off!

Good Government Day

The General Court has enacted chapter 561 which provides that the Governor designate the second Friday in January as "Good Government Day".

The Chapter also provides for a Student Senate and a Student House of Representatives.

The selection of the student officers for these two bodies was made by a drawing similar to that used by Selective Service during World Wars I and II. Governor Robert F. Bradford, the other constitutional officers, and the twenty heads of State Departments gathered at the Governor's office on Friday, January 9, 1948. There, from the fish bowl containing the names of the two hundred and eighty winners, the names of the officers of Good Government Day were drawn.

On Friday, February 20, 1948 the student officers took over the government of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts for the day.

L. Ruggles Porter of New Bedford Vocational High School was elected as State Representative. He is a member of the Senior Class.

Mids't the spires of old New Bedford
Waves the white and Green
Stands our glorious school Vocational Noblest ever seen.

Chorus:

Let our voices, raised in chorus
Loud, her glory sing
And the praises of Vocational
Through our fair land ring.

Loyal graduates from her portals
Bring to Industry
All their skill and all knowledge
To them — Honor Be!
